Good Morning Bruce

Apologies for the late reply. I have plotted your address onto Google Earth against the project layouts. Your property is located outside (to the north of) the project area, which ends just south of Umgeni Road. Apologies for this, our title deeds search included a number of properties to the north, which was the original extent of the project. I have attached a Jpeg of your property in relation to the end of the project area. You are still welcome to be part of the Public Participation Process if you wish too, or I can remove you from the project database.

Kind Regards,
