Good Afternoon Mr Ramlal

Please note that if you have concerns/ comments that pertain to this phase of the project we would still like to except them. We understand that some have received this letter late due to the incorrect addresses (unfortunately these where the only address we had) which is why we are still accepting comments.

Thank you for updating your details, we will add you to the project database and look forward to you participation in this project.

Regards, Mareike

Subject: Invitation to Participate

Dear Mareike Straeuli

Thank you for accepting my call this afternoon.

I am disappointed that I could not direct my concerns / comments as the due date had passed. I had only received my mail today due to my address being incorrect on the letter.

On the upside you stated that I can still participate and receive correspondence and still be in touch.

I am very much interested in what going to happen as this project unfolds as it would effect me in one way or other.

Best Regards

Ramlall I.M.
