Hi Paul

It's not a worry at all.

I hope the attached document will help clarify the changes to Eden Road.

As we are still in the process of compiling the Draft Basic Assessment Report, this and the poster that I sent previously is all the information we currently have.

Regards, Mareike

Hi Mareike

Sorry to worry you.

Hi Paul

Thanks for your email. I will update the database with your correct information.

I have added the Poster that shows the section you looking at. And also a Google Earth image of the area. The red lines are where road reserve is being extended to new property, and the black line is the current road reserve that remains unchanged.

Hope this helps.

Regards, Mareike
